

MODEL ACTIVITY TASK
CLASS – VIII
ENGLISH

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

One quiet afternoon, he lay fast asleep and fell to dreaming again. Unknown to him, the ship stood offshore from his old farm. In Jon's dream the seasons turned rapidly and as each turned, so did Jon in his bed. Consequently, the cap on his head twisted round and about. It called up a squall from the clear sky that hit the ship without a warning.

The wind had been whirling about the boat tearing the sails and snapping the spars. "Its' his fault," the sailors cried. They shouted in anger and fear and tried to rid the cap off his head.

Well, they were unsuccessful, for it was a fairy cap.

ACTIVITY: 1

Answer the following questions:

- (i) What happened as Jon lay fast asleep?
- (ii) How did the squall arise suddenly?
- (iii) Describe the condition of the ship in the squall.
- (iv) What did the sailors do to stop the squall?

ACTIVITY: 2

Rewrite the following sentences using Future Perfect tense. One is done for you:

- Statement: You will be enjoying the tour.
 - Ans: You will have enjoyed the tour.
- (i) By this time next year Diya will be attending her university classes.
 - (ii) I shall be finishing my lessons by then.
 - (iii) He will be leaving for work before the family wakes up.
 - (iv) My friends will be coming to our house next month.

ACTIVITY: 3

Suppose on a hot summer afternoon while you were playing with your friends, the weather changed suddenly and the rains came down and so you were completely drenched. Write a letter to your friend in about 80 words describing your feelings of being drenched.

Students will write answers to these activity tasks in subject specific exercise books at home, and submit the exercise books to respective subject teachers after schools reopen.
Under no circumstance, students will go out of home.
