

Questions for Portal

English

Class – X

Date: 25.02.2022

1. How did Bapu change the lives of millions of people?

Ans: Bapu had awakened millions of people out of indifference to the sufferings of their fellow beings. He had taught them to be empathetic and compassionate.

2. Why had the Indians preferred walking to riding on vehicles?

Ans: The Indians preferred walking to riding on vehicles for walking required nothing other than his body and energy.

3. Why was the walk agonizing to the author?

Ans: The walk was agonising for the author for with Bapu's death ,they felt helpless and unprotected and this would be the last time they would be walking with their guide, and walking in this procession with him for the last time had a special meaning.

4. "My values were not so weak"- Why did the author say so

Ans: The author said that her values were not so weak as she had been inspired by Gandhiji's teachings and she believed that young people like her would carry the banner of Gandhiji after his death.