

Q1. What was Swaminathan's activity on every Sunday according to his father?

Ans. 1. According to his father Swaminathan wandered around aimlessly on Sundays which perhaps gave him headaches on Mondays .

Q2. Did Swaminathan repent for the allegation that he made against his teacher? If so, why?

Ans. 2. Yes, Swaminathan did repent for the allegation he made against his teacher.

It was so because he knew that whatever he said about Samuel was not true and it was used as a defence for his excuse of not going to school.

Q3. Why did Swami run away from the Headmaster's room?

Ans.3. Swami ran away from the headmaster's room as the peon informed him that the Headmaster was on leave. It was a run of relief as he was somehow freed of the guilt of accusing Samuel unreasonably.
