

Subject: English

Class: X

Lesson: My Own True Family

Date: 04.05.2020

1. Jyotirmay Biswas, Rajganj M.N. High School (H.S.), Jalpaiguri

Q: What was the promise the poet had to make?

Ans: The poet had to make the promise that whenever an oak-tree is felled, he must promise to plant two oak-trees.

2. Pratik Bhattacharjee, Baidywnathpur High School, Paschim Bardhaman

Q: By whom did the poet find himself surrounded?

Ans: The poet found himself surrounded by a cluster of oak-trees that were looking at him.

3. Neha Prasad, Indian Girls' High School, North 24 Parganas

Q: What would happen if the poet failed to keep the promise?

Ans: If the poet failed to keep the promise, then he would be covered by the black oak bark and be rooted among the oak-trees.

4. Rupankar Das, Anandanagar A.C. Roy High School, Hooghly

Q: Who introduced themselves as the poet's own true family?

Ans: The oak-trees introduced themselves as the poet's own true family.